

“Deep Despair”

When pain and death are gnawing at the door,
And it seems deep despair threatens you to your very core,
You cry out to God and want to question why,
And it seems He’s not hearing you and you get no reply.

But then it seemed God spoke in a small still voice,
“Lean on me to work things out, you have a choice,
To fret and worry, wring your hands and cry,
Or leave it in my hands and cease to question why.
I am working all things out for your good and I know best,
You can handle this trial, you will not fail the test.”

Peter thought he could walk on water and had no doubt,
But when he took his eyes off Jesus, he began to shout,
Lord, save me, I need you, I am sinking in this sea,
So just keep calling out to Jesus and He will hear your plea.

Remember in the Bible where Job faced troubles sore,
He lost all his children, all his belongings and more.
But he clung to God and strength he did receive,
So all that’s required of us is that we just believe.
Believe that Jesus died for our sins and from death he arose,
He went to prepare a place for us and a clear path He shows,
So when we die we will stand before him all clean and pure,
Just trust and cling to Him and this trial you can endure.
