

John 8:1-11

April 24, 2016

I. Jesus teaching in the Temple early in the morning. John 8:1-2

II. Woman caught in adultery. John 8:3-11

A. The scribes and Pharisees were tempting Jesus to accuse him. John 8:6

1. If He had her stoned. He was a judge.

a. Jesus came not to judge, but to save. John 12:47

b. The world is condemned already. John 3:18

2. If He set her free. He was against Moses and the law.

B. The woman was caught in the very act of adultery. John 8:3-4

1. To be able to catch her in the very act, it must have been planned.

C. They miss quoted the Law of Moses. John 8:5

1. Both were to be killed. Leviticus 20:10

2. Where was the man that committed adultery with her?

3. They presented a condemned woman and a let the condemned man go free.

D. Jesus ignored them. He wrote on the ground. John 8:6

E. They continued asking him. John 8:7

F. Jesus stood up and challenged them. John 8:7

1. Jesus wrote on the ground again. John 8:8

2. The eldest left first and then the rest. John 8:9

G. Jesus did not judge her. John 8:10-11

1. Jesus came not to judge, but to save. John 12:47