

Louise Hall, as of 2010, has 76 years of experiencing life.

- 57 years married to Billy Hall, now a semi-retired pastor.
- 50 years as pastor's wife.
- 16 years in Kansas as church planters.
- 6 years as a housemother of teenagers at Oklahoma Baptist Children's Homes.
- 20 years as a social worker, now retired.

Louise and Billy have a daughter and a son who was killed in a traffic accident in 1997.

Louise began to write poetry in her late sixties following several tragic family events as an outlet for her emotions and her praise to our Lord for the strength He gives to overcome. . Her desire is that you may find help and guidance for the tough times in life through the words of her poems. She also shares some things that bring joy and laughter in our everyday lives to help us see that “God is so good.”