

“Broad is the Road and Narrow the Gate.”

I am a part of the bride, the body, the church,
And for a deeper walk I must forever search.
Or cold and indifferent I will become,
And to the cares of this world I will succumb.
The riches I gain will matter not,
Fame and fortune will be but a dot,
But the souls I've won with me I can take.
So ask yourself, is it for souls you yearn and ache?
Do you know they are lost and in a hopeless state?
Can you tell them how they can escape?
So get ready, get ready, he's coming for his bride,
But the road to hell is broad and wide.
So help those struggling to get on the narrow path,
Jesus is the only way to escape God's wrath.
He died on that cross for you and me,
And sharing his love is the golden key.
It will unlock the door that is blocked by sin,
They just have to pray and ask Him to come in.
He will change their life and make them like new,
Will you tell others so they can share Heaven with you?

By Louise Hall