

Romans 12:1-2

November 27, 2011

- Chapter one through chapter eight addresses the major doctrines of sin and salvation.
- Chapters Nine, Ten and Eleven addresses Israel's relationship to the gospel.
- Chapter twelve through sixteen, addresses the personal and practical applications of Christian principles to the Christian's life.
- Now that I am a Christian, what does God expect from me?
- How am I to conduct myself in the world?
- The first section of Romans addresses the sin problem.
- The second section addresses the Jew problem.
- The third section addresses the life problem.
- Chapter twelve begins the third and last major section of Romans.
- Chapter twelve addresses how to win the lost to Christ.
- Rev. Florin Iosub, Timisoara, Romania reported that in Uivar, Romania they will have greater results "Because it is a new ministry and you don't face the 'history' of bad Christian witness, so that we can get some fruits for Christ."

I. Therefore. Romans 12:1

A. All are lost and all must be saved. Romans 11:32

II. To bring the world to a saving knowledge of Jesus.

A. You must present your bodies a living sacrifice. Romans 12:1

B. You must not be conformed to this world. Romans 12:2

C. You must serve God as members of one body. Romans 12:3-8

D. You must be a true Christian. Romans 12:9-21

Romans 12:1-2

I. Therefore. Romans 12:1

A. All are lost and all must be saved. Romans 11:32

II. To bring the world to a saving knowledge of Jesus.

A. You must present your bodies a living sacrifice. Romans 12:1,
Romans 6:6-14, 1 Corinthians 5:7-8, Galatians 2:20,
Luke 9:23, Colossians 3:8-9

1. That is acceptable unto God. Romans 12:1,
2 Timothy 2:15, 1 Peter 2:20

2. Which is your reasonable service. Romans 12:1

B. You must not be conformed to this world. Romans 12:2,
2 Corinthians 6:14-18, Ephesians 2:2-3, Ephesians 4:17-20,
James 4:4, 1 John 2:15-17

1. You are to be transformed. Romans 12:2

a. By the renewing of your mind. Romans 12:2, Ephesians 4:22-24, Colossians 3:10-14

b. That you may prove the will of God. Romans 12:2, 1 Timothy 2:3-6