

“Awake, Awake”

The night is almost over, day break is here,
Arise from your slumber, Christ’s coming is near.
Will He find us watching and our arms clutching tight,
Our family and friends we have rescued from the night.
Have you shared His love to those in your path,
That Jesus came to save them from God’s wrath?
For the sin in our lives, Jesus died to make a way,
That we could be forgiven and live in Heaven one day.
The night may seem long as we slumber in deep sleep,
But wake and warn or for our loved ones we will weep.
Tell them now, don’t delay, Christ is on the way.
Awake, awake, we must work while it is yet day.

By Louise Hall