

Pick Up Your Towel”

Perhaps you are discouraged and think I am no good,
I can do nothing instead of still thinking you could.
Have you quit serving and telling others about Him?
Your light still burns a little but has become very dim.
You’ve let things and cares of this world put you down,
Listen to His voice once again, can you hear that sound?
“Pick up the towel,” I heard my Savior say,
“I dried the feet of others, what have you done today?”
Are you looking and listening for our Master’s call,
Are you willing to do for others and give your very all?
In that you have done it unto others, you have done it unto me,
These are the words of Jesus so open your eyes and see,
Perhaps children crying out with hunger, are you there with food?
Start helping others and your strength and faith will be renewed.
You will once again find purpose and even renewed strength,
So don’t let your life be measured only by breadth or length.
But what you’ve done to help others will determine your worth,
Are you telling others so they can experience the new birth?
“You must be born again” in the Bible we are told,
So keep telling that story even while growing old.

By Louise Hall