

Genesis 24

- I. Abraham sends his servant to get a wife for Isaac. Genesis 24:1-9
 - A. The servant was to go to Abraham's country and kindred and get a wife for Isaac. Genesis 24:1-4
 - B. If the woman that will marry Isaac will come to him, do not take Isaac there.
 - C. Isaac is to remain in the land that God promised Abraham.
 - D. An angel will be sent before the servant to help find a wife for Isaac.
 - E. If the woman is not willing to come to Isaac, then the servant is not to force her.
- II. The servant goes to the city of Haran where Nahor, Abraham's brother, lives. Genesis 24:10-11
 - A. He went to a well outside the city at a time when the women go out to draw water.
- III. The servant prays for a sign to help find a wife for Isaac. Genesis 24:12-14
 - A. He prayed that as the women came to the well, the one who would be willing to give him a drink of water and water his camels, would be the woman to be the wife of Isaac.
- IV. Rebekah, Abraham's brother's granddaughter comes to the well. Genesis 24:15-28
 - A. Rebekah is very beautiful and a virgin. Genesis 24:16.
 - B. Rebekah gave the servant a drink of water and watered his camels. Genesis 24:17-22
 - C. The servant gives Rebekah a golden erring and two bracelets. Genesis 24:22
 - D. The servant inquires who she is and if he could stay at her father's house. Genesis 24:23
 - E. Rebekah tells the servant that she is Nahor's granddaughter and that he could lodge at her father's house. Genesis 24:24-25

- V. The servant worshipped and thanks God for leading him so quickly to the house of Abraham's brethren. Genesis 24:26-27
- VI. The servant tells that he is there to find a wife for Isaac. Genesis 24:28-48
- VII. The servant asks for permission to take Rebekah to Isaac to be his wife. Genesis 24:49-52
- A. Permission is given and the servant worships God.
- VIII. The servant gives Rebekah a dowry (earnest of the inheritance). Genesis 24:53
- IX. The servant wants to leave with Rebekah the next day. Genesis 24:54-60
- A. Rebekah's family wants the servant to stay a few days. Genesis 24:54-56
- B. Rebekah is to make the decision if she wants to go and she does. Genesis 24:57-59
- C. They blessed her and said, "Be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them." Genesis 24:60.
- X. Rebekah meets Isaac. Genesis 24:61-66
- A. Rebekah follows the servant. Genesis 24:61
- B. Rebekah sees Isaac in the field. Genesis 24:62-64
- C. The servant introduces Rebekah to Isaac. Genesis 24:65-66
- D. Rebekah makes herself ready for the marriage. Genesis 24:65
- XI. Isaac and Rebekah are married in Sarah's tent. Genesis 24:67