

Genesis 27

- I. Jacob obtains Isaac's blessing (authority) through deceit. Genesis 27:1-29
- A. Isaac is old and almost blind. Genesis 27:1-2
 - B. Isaac instructs Esau to go to the field and kill a deer and prepare the meat that he may eat and bless him. Genesis 27:3-4
 - C. Rebekah overhears the request made by Isaac. Genesis 27:5
 - D. Rebekah plots a way for Jacob to deceive Isaac in believing he is Esau in order to receive the blessing. Genesis 27:6-17
 - E. Jacob carries out the plot and tells Isaac that he is Esau. Genesis 27:18-24
 - F. Isaac blesses Jacob in place of Esau. Genesis 27:25-29
 - 1. He would have plenty of corn and wine.
 - 2. Others would serve him.
 - 3. Nations would bow down to him.
 - 4. He would rule over his brethren.
 - 5. His brother would bow down to him.
- II. Isaac's blessing upon Esau. Genesis 27:30-40
- A. After Esau comes back from hunting, he and Isaac realize that they were deceived by Jacob. Genesis 27:30-36
 - B. Esau asks for a blessing from Isaac. Genesis 27:36-38
 - C. Isaac blesses Esau. Genesis 27:39-40
 - 1. He will dwell in the fatness of the earth.
 - 2. He will live by the sword and serve his brother.
 - 3. He will break the yoke of Jacob off his neck.
- III. Rebekah sends Jacob to Haran to flee Esau. Genesis 27:41-46