

Genesis 47

- I. Joseph presents his father and brothers to Pharaoh. Vs. 1-10
  - A. Pharaoh orders them to live in the best of the land of Goshen. Vs. 1-6
  - B. Israel blesses Pharaoh. Vs. 7-10
  - C. Israel is 130 years old. Vs. 9
- II. Joseph provides for his father and brothers. Vs. 11-12
- III. Joseph sells and trades the stored corn in Egypt. Vs. 14
  - A. Joseph sold the stored corn for all the money in Egypt and Canaan. Vs. 14
  - B. Joseph traded the stored corn for all the livestock in Egypt and Canaan. Vs. 15-17
  - C. Joseph traded the stored corn for all the land in Egypt and Canaan, except the land of the priest. Vs. 18-23
  - D. Joseph traded the stored corn for a fifth part of the harvest of their corps. Vs. 24-26
  - E. At he end of the famine, Pharaoh owned all the livestock, land, and would receive a fifth part of the harvest of the people of Egypt and Canaan.
- IV. Israel dwelt in Goshen, grew and multiplied exceedingly. Vs. 27
- V. Israel lived in the land of Egypt for 17 years. Vs. 28
  - A. Israel lives to be 147 years old.
- VI. Joseph promises to bury Israel with his fathers in Canaan. Vs. 29-31