

Genesis 9

- I. God told Noah and his sons to replenish the earth. Genesis 9:1
 - A. Replenish – put back what was there before the flood.
- II. All of the animals, fowls, and fishes, shall fear man. Genesis 9:2
- III. Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for man. Genesis 9:3
 - A. Nothing that has blood is to be eaten alive. Genesis 9:4
- IV. Thou shall not kill men, by your hand or with animals. Genesis 9:5-7
- V. The rainbow is created for a covenant with men that God will not destroy the world with water again. Genesis 9:8-17
- VI. The sons of Noah. Genesis 9:18-19
 - A. Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
 - B. Ham is the father of Canaan.
- VII. Noah got drunk and went to sleep naked in his tent. Genesis 9:20-23
 - A. Ham and his son, Canaan saw Noah.
 - B. Ham told his brothers.
 - C. Shem and Japheth carried a covering and went in backwards and covered Noah without seeing his nakedness.
- VIII. Noah places a curse on Canaan and his descendants. Genesis 9:24-25
 - A. God did not curse Ham.
 - B. Canaan would be a servant to his brethren.
 - C. Canaan would be a servant to Shem and his descendants.
- IX. Noah blessed Shem. Genesis 9:26
 - A. Shem would follow God.
 - B. Canaan would serve Shem.
- X. Noah blessed Japheth. Genesis 9:27
 - A. Japheth would be a large race of nations.
 - B. Japheth would dwell in the tents of Shem, that is, to learn from Shem how to serve God. Canaan would serve Japheth.

- XI. Noah lived 350 years after the flood and died at the age of 950. Genesis 9:28-29